SATURDAY, FEB. 8, 1879.

The Nashville Banner says that in refusing to expunge a resolution of censure against that journal, the House of Representatives, in addition to being bulldozed by Judge Butler, had made "fools" of themselves. If that were all, how much better would it have been for the credit of the Legislature. Why, it has fooled away over a month acting the fool. About the only thing accomplished, has been the appointment of a few committees to investigate matters about which they know nothing, never can know anything, and don't want to know anything. They are spending the people's money foolishly and accomplishing nothing. Most of the investigations are a silly farce. The Banner has been the friend of the Legislature, among the daily press of the State, almost its only friend, and for it to be calling our solons "fools" is hard indeed—but truth sometimes hurts worse than misrepresentation.

The Herald, published in the territory of Memphis, says there are too few in East Tennessee to make a State, and that "there is far too great a scarcity of material to make the Governors and Senators of the United States, that a separate State would require." The editor in making this statement shows both his ignorance and bad taste. East Tennessee, for years, has been furnishing Memphis with its brains. Who have held their offices? Carrick W. Heiskell, Circuit Judge; Will L. Scott, a Chancellor; Harvey Mathes, Tax Collector, and then Representative in the Legislature two terms; Gammon, Attorney General; J. B. Heiskell, Humes, Jarnagin, and London C. Haynes, prominent and leading members of the bar, all East Tennesseans. We have plenty of the very best material for Governors and United States Senators, and could spare Memphis a few more. But no East Tennessean have had anything to do with the late city government, of the late city of Memphis, and whatever we may lack in the way of furnishing material for Governors and United States Senators, certain it is, that no city in this section of the State has been forced to the humiliation of asking the Legislature to repeal its charter, for the purpose of avoiding the payment of its debts. There is a "great scarcity" of that sort of material in this end of the State.

SHAM ECONOMY.

Mr. Mills, a Democratic Congressman from the State of Texas, charged the other day that Gen. Custer fell a victim to the sham cry of reform in the Federal Congress. We charged this through the columns of the CHRONICLE more than two years ago. The army is one of the things that the average, hard-shell, red-nosed bourbon can not stand. The sight of a blue coat and brass buttons acts upon his sensibilities like water upon hydrophobia. He goes into spasms and talks wildly about the danger to which liberty is exposed, unless something is done to keep down the army. The Representatives in Congress, of this element, are eternally trying to reduce the army. They tried on Tuesday, but, thanks to a few reasonable Democrats, aided by Republicans, they were defeated. The idea of a House of Representatives demanding, as a matter of economy, that the army shall be cut down one-third below the present strength, which has been guilty of spending hundreds of dollars to buy wine and whisky for a few drunken members to drink, while going to and returning from the funeral of a Senator, is the very height of absurdity. They will pay a party favorite, the impetuous tool of one of their number, $190 for summoning five witnesses and traveling a mile and a-half, but they will expose the settlers on the border to savage ferocity, and allow the Texans to be overrun by Mexican thieves, all to save money. If this is not sham economy, what is it? If this is not demagogism, what is it?

VARIETIES.

English financiers propose to let Turkey have a loan of $60,000,000.

Gen. Butler has bought the controlling stock in the Boston Globe. He will be a candidate for Governor.

It is said that Dr. Abel, the Berlin correspondent of the London Times, is able to speak seventy different languages.

Senator Bayard, is expected to deliver an address to the students—one of whom is his son—of the University of Virginia next summer.

The President of the French Republic receives a salary of $100,000 and $50,000 for household expenses. They need a Glover Committee.

If there is any man in the United States who would like to write a second "Oliver Twist" we would suggest that the Potter Committee take the place of the "Artful Dodger."

The valuable records of Franklin county, Ohio, were saturated with kerosene, last week, and burned. Fortunately, however, duplicates had been made, and the purpose of the incendiary was thwarted.

The Democrats and Greenbackers of the Maine House of Representatives have awarded a contract for the State printing to the publishers of the Augusta Greenback newspapers, when there were two lower bidders.

Taft is prominently mentioned as Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio. The Republicans of the "Buckeye" State have lots of gubernatorial timber, any such of which can easily be the pillar of the State.

What, with the 13th, 14th, and 15th amendments, the rebel war claims, the iron-clad oaths, the ciphers, General Bragg, Ben. Hill, and other elements of disturbance all pressing at once, it is a sadly torn up Democracy.—(The Cincinnati Gazette.)

Here is a specimen of Democratic wit. It's a good thing that the fool-killer has not found the man that penned it: "There is complaint of diseased cattle exported from this country to Europe. Hayes started it by shipping Bull-dog to Cologne."—(Washington Post.)

Susan B. Anthony is a "phenomenal" woman. A few days ago, in making a speech to the New York Legislature, she told them that she made her first appearance before that body, thirty years ago, when most of those who now hear her, were at school. Not many women would make such a confession.

The Taxing District No. 1, Avon-lanche has the following: "There is a great deal more sound than substance in Ben Hill, but he showed sagacity in backing down on the silver bill. Ben has the Vice Presidential itch—a fatal malady—and in discussing Southern claims he ignores his own people and looks only to the close States in the North. We mean this is his position to-day. Where he may stand next week is one of those things 'no fellow can find out.'"

Cut this out and take it with you. When you ask for "Dr. C. Mc Lane's Liver Pills," say that they must bear the autograph signature on the wrapper, "C. McLane," be half encircled with blue government stamp, bearing the words "Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa., proprietors," and then you will be right.

Sheriff's Land Sale. ON SATURDAY, THE 22ND DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1879, at the Court House door, in Knoxville, by virtue of an execution in my hands, issued from the Supreme Court of Errors and Appeals, to Knoxville, Tenn., in the case of Martin Shea vs. Jos. A. Mabry et al., I will proceed to sell all the right, title, claim, interest and demand John Wood, one of the defendants, has in and to two tracts of land situated and lying in the 8th civil district of Knox county, Tennessee, as follows: Beginning at a sassafras and hickory on the top of Beaver Ridge, a rear with Spencer Eskin; thence with said Eskin line north 41 west 184 poles to a rock set in the ground; M. W. Brown's corner; thence with the said Brown's line north 40 east 184 poles to two small black oaks and hickory, thence south 55 east 184 poles to the top of Beaver Creek Ridge; and thence with the various meanderings of said ridge to the beginning, containing

150 Acres, more or less, and the other tract on the south side of Beaver Creek, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake 1, the corner of Knob Fork, Wilson Parker's corner, opposite a marked oak and Spanish oak, standing on the north bank of said creek; thence with said Parker's line south 41 west 184 poles to a rock set in the ground and corner; thence with said M. W. Wood's line north 41 west 184 poles to a black oak on the top of Beaver Ridge; thence with the top of said ridge as it means to a hickory near the old road across Knob Fork; thence north 11 1/2 east 184 poles to a stake in the center of the creek between a marked sassafras, ash and iron wood, and a marked sassafras, ash and iron wood, measuring to the beginning, containing

130 Acres, more or less, being the same tract of land conveyed to John Wood by his father, Clement Wood, in 1818, by unregistered deed, dated the 20th of June, 1818, and on which the said John Wood now lives. Out of the last described tract of land a homestead has been set apart, measured as follows: Beginning at a stake in the center of Knob Fork, Wilson Parker's corner; thence with Parker's line north 41 west 184 poles to a stake in said line near a small red oak; thence with said outside boundary to the beginning. This tract contains the 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd,
